

Pain Care Clinics (PCC) Career Posting

X-Ray/Imaging Technician

The Imaging Technician provides the safe and effective delivery of x-rays to patients during their pain interventional treatments. The Technician ensures that he/she adheres to all clinic policies, standards, and practices.

Job Responsibilities

- Patient preparation for the performance of Fluoroscopy guided interventions
- Operate fluoroscopy machine during procedures, under direction of the physician, in accordance with the company's policies and procedures.
- Record and process patient data
- Wearing protective equipment as required
- Perform basic quality control checks on equipment.
- Update, file and maintain client information.
- Review of written reports and discussion with physicians
- Assist with facility flow of patients through the clinic and coordinate with medical team to ensure patient centric service delivery.
- Establishes priorities and makes ethically sound decisions to ensure safe patient care.
- Prepares treatment room for examination and treatment of patient.
- Collaborating with other health care professionals
- Participating in continuing education
- Strong knowledge of equipment and how to clean and decontaminate it.
- Assists in training new staff, and/or support staff engaged in clinic activities.
- Performs other job-related duties as assigned.

Required Skills & Experience

- Bachelor's Degree in Nursing required
- Certification with the CMRITO and General Radiography experience
- Experience in Fluoroscopy guided interventions preferred.
- Experience in Fluoroscopy guided interventions preferred.
- Superior organizational and time management skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Proficient in MS Word and Outlook
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Superior patient care and customer service skills
- Ability to maintain composure and emotional stability to cope with emergencies, stress, and human suffering.
- Ability to maintain safety and quality as well as infection control standards.
- Strong knowledge of medical equipment

UNITY

ASPIRATION

HUMANITY

INTELLECT

COMPASSION