
Ultrasound Technologist

Job Summary

- Work as a Diagnostic Imaging Sonographer/Technologists
- Perform a variety of Diagnostic Ultrasounds including:
 - General and Small Parts
 - Obstetrical Imaging (experience REQUIRED)
 - IPS certification preferred
 - Breast Imaging (experience REQUIRED)
 - MSK Imaging experience preferred
- Work as a part of a team with a commitment to excellent patient care.
- Perform high quality Diagnostic Imaging with competence and care.
- Comprehensive education and knowledge of anatomy and physiology,
- Working knowledge of equipment and ability to troubleshoot problems.
- The Registered Technologist is responsible to maintain competency and follow standards, as outlined by the College.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Initiative, responsibility and organization required.
- Good verbal and written communication skills, as well as computer skills required.
- Have knowledge of all ultrasound exams, anatomy & physiology, physics and imaging equipment required.
- Experience and ability to image accurately, thoroughly and quickly required.
- Experience working in an ultrasound setting, with equipment, PACS and computer software required.
- Provide records of continued education and learning.
- Problem-solving, time management and teamwork skills required.
- Commitment to excellence in patient care required.
- Demonstrated reliable attendance and ability/willingness to work various shifts required.

Qualifications and Skills

- Current registration with the College of Medical Radiation Technologists of Ontario (CMRTO)
- Current registration with another body including PLI (OAMRS/ Sonography Canada)
- Recent related experience with Ontario Breast Screening Program (OBSP) preferred.
- Current BCLS certification preferred.

Salary: $35.00-$40.00 per hour based on experience.